(one two one two three four) ive got no place to hide, im burning up inside, i dont know if i can make it on my own ive got no choice now i always wonder how how am i gonna live to see tomorrow

(chorus)
nothing to run from nothing to hide from nothing to fear but myself, cause my mind wont let me make it on my own i was so blind to see, but now its clear to me suicide is the only option, goodbye my friends farewell i'll see you all in hell cant hide from the life that im living

(chorus)
