Man once sang to me
Look at you saving the world on your own
And I wonder how things gonna be
As the time here it passes so slow

In a city of devils we live
A city of devils we live

Find somebody to learn
Boy, you gotta love someone more than yourself
I can feel the fire of the city lights burn
And it's hard to find Angels in Hell

Flying alone
And I
Feel like I don't belong
And I
Can't tell right from the wrong
And why have I been here so long?

In a city of devils we live
A city of devils we live

Questions I can't seem to find
To the answers I already have
And you can't see the sky here at night
So I guess I can't make my way back

Flying alone
And I
Feel like I don't belong
And I
Can't tell right from the wrong
And why have I been here so long?

What if I wanted you here
Right now
Would you fall in the fire burn me down
If I wanted you here
Right now
Would you fall in the fire burn me down
If I wanted you here

Right now

In a city of devils we live [x2]
A city of devils we live
In a city of...

Flying alone
And I
Feel like I don't belong
And I
Can't tell right from the wrong
And why have I been here so long?

I don't belong
Don't belong
I've been here too long
Too long
