Sneak out of your room
Just after midnight
Stand under streetlights
And wait for someone to come
Save us from ourselves
As we hit the self-destruct
I'm wishing you all good luck
As we wait for summer to come

This is a dancefloor honey
So get on the dancefloor
This is a dancefloor honey
So get on the dancefloor
You know you've never had it this good before

We showed up outside
With stones for your window
And the time of your life so far
So good it's worth what they'll say
Rain-soaked concrete shines
Like stars under our feet
And blinks to the quick beat
Of songs that keep us alive

It's not about how we got here
It's just about how we're getting out
