Always had to run anyway
He'll be back again
Seems like he's always been the same too long

But I'll never run
So far away again
You've never the way I kneel

Tell me I've always been
In too deep
Following everything
The way it seems

But I'll never run
So far away again
You've never seen the way I kneel

I'll be around
I'll be around again
I'll be around
Some day
I'll be around

Tell me I've always been
In too deep
Followed every thought
The way it seems

So far away
I never wonder
You could just walk away
From me

I'll be around
I'll be around again
I'll be around
Some day
I'll be around
I'll be around (take your place)
I'll be around (son I've changed)
I'll be around (follow you)

I'll be around (leaving you)

So far away
I've never wondered how
You could just walk away
From me, no

Always had to runaway
Well come back again
Seems like he's always been
The same too long
Too long
Too long
Too long
