Face this Day and Save your Honor Take this Pain and make this better Your eyes are waiting for a sign but loss of love has left you blind you turn your back on your friends now what you sew will bring your end

I cant seem to let go the pain you cause is constant nothing seems to matter or get better anymore Time to turn the tables end this endless torment Tear the flesh from my face facing what my heart abores Wait for you to falter
Form a plan for vengeance Bide my time and wait for you to fall into my trap Sick of being let down done with being stepped on kill you with the very knife you left within my back

You talk and take what you need We walk and back what we believe you run your mouth while were asleep
I wont rest til you dont breathe
