[Music and Lyrics: Mark Kelson]

Your eyes tell of lost love your tears tell of your pain I tremble as we kiss as we embrace our passion

Darkness soothes a hungry soul and in the twilight I dream in the darkness we dance this moment shall never end

I caress your delicate skin melting into black silhouettes I embrace thee my beloved a moment I can not bare to end
as the candles flame dies our pain fills my heart the sorrow of our last embrace. . .

Darkness soothes a hungry soul
this moment shall never end
