Church of christ breeding hate the flame of hell shall rise Satans force rains from the throne to slay the priest of lies 1,000 years was bound by chain Satanus seeks revenge
Burning flame the antichrist no mercy no repent
Chorus:
Lightning strikes the knell of death panic runs below Holy priest he prays in vain the winds of death now blow
Flame of the antichrist Satans troops they march from hell the ressurected dead
Church of christ lay under siege the flame of death burns red
Demons slay the king of kings destroy this holy shrine

Bow to me the antichrist the house of god is mine
Chorus
Cast upon the wings of death drowned in seas of blood Damned the church to solitude holy ones are slain Fallen from the lap of god satan claims revenge Thunder flame the mighty force burn the cross
In sacred tongue they try to fight satan holds the force Wind and flame exerting death destruction of the cross Spirits scream with chants of doom lucifer has come Distant hopes the heavens fall in hell thy will be done
Chorus
