la la la la la, la la la la la

the centuries
going back to zero
say i'm a fool
and every man a hero
i am the future
i am the coming force
mother nature
will take no other course somewhere to climb up upon somewhere to look down at you from

when you made the mountain
you made me
you made me

when you made the mountain you made me

you made me
you made me
