I rode through the desert for days on a horse to here
"Fear non" and "justice for all" Justice, not fear Bad guys better watch your backs cause I'm always near.
Line falls with the blink of an eye and I'll be gone from here

I am the invincible abomination
I am the invisible transformation
I am the only hope, your saving grace
I am the only hope for an undeserving race

With all I've done for you, you worthless ingrate, Said you're sweat on your brow and your tears on your face.
I repay with ashes of love and now you're the great
You undeserving shit! Now is your fate.

I am the invincible abomination
I am the invisible transformation
I am the only hope, your saving grace
I am the only hope for an undeserving race
