(VB Unitt)

You say you're gonna kick out school for good.

I'd really like to see you try.

You seem to have forgotten how the master threw shit in your eye.

Oh, you crazy boy! They're gonna laugh at you,
all those crazy things you say and do.

The money sang deep in his pants you recall as his hand wrapped around your head.

Idea capital didn't it just make you see red.

You wanted to change the world but you got up far too late they'd

all gone back to bed before you reached the gate.

Oh, you crazy boy!

They're gonna laugh at you all those crazy things you say and do.
