Burning sign ? in the sky ? storms rise ? on the northern side

Thunder roars ? lightning strikes ? man the ships ? to war we ride

Demons from a place unknown ? where evil dwells and dark things grow

By the grace of firegods ? assault our land if ice and snow

Written in the prophecy ages ago ? the war between fire and snow

Demons unleashed from the darklands core ? this time it's war

My heart for the lands of winter
And my sword strikes for the light
For my god I will die

And my fate is the shield of mine
Born in the land of north and here I will die

Sail across the seven seas ? that is your destiny
Where great evil reigns ? and the oceans meet eternity
The fortress of shadows ? in the frozen wasteland
The core of darkness ? mankind's fate of is at hand

Of mother of north ? hold safety your sons
Oh father of storms ? bring us north from here
Hold darkness from us ? not death only failure we fear

Sail across the seven seas ? that is your destiny
Where great evil reigns ? and the oceans meet eternity
The fortress of shadows ? in the frozen wasteland
The core of darkness ? mankind's fate of is at hand
Sail across the seven seas ? through the seven gates of hell

To the forbidden place ? where great evil dwells

Moving shades of black ? shining eyes of fire
Death hiding in the darkness ? and it seems that all our gods have left

Approaching the realm of fire ? fighting side by side
Fighting day and night ? we will win or we all will die
