Summer's come and gone,
Billy faded like the sun,
Mommy wants him back where he belongs.
Waiting by the phone,
Billy please come home.

(CHORUS)
Open up your eyes,
Walking into danger.
Happens every time,
Children look for saviors.
(But I fall) for candy from strangers.

Lisa lost her way,
Walking home from school today.
The headlines read that only books remained.
Daddy's little girl, vanished from his world.

(REPEAT CHORUS)
(But I fall)
Summer's come again,
With wounds that never mend

(REPEAT CHORUS TWICE)
