"Beyond the night"

Visit "Beyond the night" on MotoLyrics.com

But see, beyond the darkness there is light

I leave the shadow portals behind, they're soon so far away

Arrive, where they call my name, is this reality

This place, it seems so intimate, have I been here before

Visions of my journey through the dark, all memories are gone

Lonely in this strange forgotten world

Everything I know is so far away

My eyes are are closed again, but this is no dream

there is no noise to hear, except my begging scream

Deceased by this misleading light

Imprisoned by that eternal night

Live or death, paradise or hell

Is this still live or is this death am I in paradise or in hell here is no guide who shows the way

I'll never see the light of day again
