Visit "Dreamworld" on MotoLyrics.com

Mystery of day is never known
It's unpredicted, hidden tone
Is in the world that you possess inside

Let the dreamworld come into the light
Forget the darkness of the night
And watch the mystery unfold

Dreams that lie beneath the golden sea
To freedom offer you a key
So face the truth

Come, come away...
Come with me today!

Close your eyes and let the dreams take you away
May the world inside you be renewed today
Don't surrender to the troubled day ahead
Trust yourself and all your dreams instead
See the hidden valleys, mountainsides,
The waterfalls and evening skies
Beyond the beauty that you've ever seen

Hear the songs that you have never heard
Neither by elves nor any bird
And watch the mystery unfold

Come, come away...
Come with me today!
