(Alain Nakache/G rard Nakache/Marc Nakache/Nicolas Neidhardt)

I was sitting on the ground, tears were rolling down my face.

I didn't know where to find a place to hide my holy faith.

I took a look at the sky and then, I saw the light.

I bathe my soul forever.

I've been hiding all the time, hiding from my life.

One day, I realised, it was time to make it right.

All you devils in disguise, you won't make me cry, no more.

Hey, you'd better visualise, I'm sick and tired of your lies !

I'm not gonna take it no more.

In the Lord, I've found what I've been looking for, yeah.

He came up and knocked on my door

Gave me strength and I'm not frightened anymore.

Lord is living in me, I can hear Him talk to me.

Deep in my soul, His voice is guiding my way.

Lord is living in me and He's all I got today.

Heavenly Father, please help me make it my way.

I've been waiting all this time for you to say your mind.

Said you wanna be my friend but sorry, I just need a man !

All the words that you may say, they won't get me far, no, no.

Hey, you wanna feel the love, baby, open up your heart.

I'm not gonna take it no more.

In the Lord, I've found what I've been looking for, yeah.

He came up and knocked on my door

Gave me strength and I'm not frightened anymore.

Lord is living in me, I can hear Him talk to me.

Deep in my soul, His voice is guiding my way.

Lord is living in me and He's all I got today.

Heavenly Father, please help me make it my way.

I swear I saw Lord and all that I know, He's giving me
His power.
I'm telling you, I know, I know I saw Him.
Lord gave me strength to keep on going further.

Lord is living in me, Lord is living in me, his voice is guiding my way.

Lord is living in me, I can hear Him talk to me.
Deep in my soul, His voice is guiding my way.
Lord is living in me and He's all I got today.
Heavenly Father, please help me make it my way.
I swear I saw Lord and all that I know, He's giving me
His power.
I'm telling you, I know, I know I saw Him.
Lord gave me strength to keep on going further.
