I was invited along to a party
Everyone I knew would all be there
Somehow I felt it never got started
U could feel the deperation in the air
I was bored & I was restless
I was ready to get on out & go back home
Before it happens I couldn't believe my eyes

Baby U walk into the room
I knew I 'd have U someday soon
From that day I had but only one thing on my mind
To get U in my arms & give U love that I could never find

Now that I've got U here with me it's getting better
U know U're everything U thought U were & more
I wake up everyday U're there beside me
I say oh baby what U got for me in store
I'm only half a girl without U
And everyday I need U more & more
If ever hurt U baby I only hurt myself
I'd expect U to just walk right out the door
Baby U walk into the room
I knew I 'd have U someday soon
From that day I had but only one thing on my mind
To get U in my arms & give U love that I could never
