You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need
You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need

It's been seven hours and fourteen nights
Since the day we met and it feels so right
All I see and all I do, make me think of you
Babe you make me feel so new

Everything I touch, everything I see
Makes me wanna be with you darling
Everything I taste, everything I dream

You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need
You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need

We take a walk on a moonlit road
And I call your name and I've got to know
Why your love makes me feel so good
How I need you like, I never thought I could

Everything I touch, everything I see
Makes me wanna be with you baby
Everything I taste, everything I dream

You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need
You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need

I know our love is holy
Two in love are never lonely
You are the only one for me

You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need

You are the air that I breathe
The only thing in the world that I need
