[Line-up:]

[IT: bass, vocals, guitars and whispers]

[Rob: guitars]

[Winter: drums]

[Aras & Veronica: female vocals]

My dark eyes watch the landscapes frozen stillness
The beautiful silent domains which he rules
The cold wind grabs my long hair
Like it wants to carry me with it to the darker marks

[Chorus :]

I walk through deep snow

[whisper] I'll wander endlessly

Searching for my master

I must march until death

[whisper] I'll wander endlessly

'til my soul takes over

Will I ever reach my wonders end ?

Penetrate the darkness

So much land that I've put behind my back

When will I sit at his throne ?

I watch the darkened domains and pass

By making the ceremony of the true

My feet are swollen blue

Of the wolf biting icy cold

I stab my dagger through my unpure heart

The sky has turned backwards - the moon is my eye

I'm neverending floating away like a dim sculpture

In the lands where I once was born

[repeat Chorus]

[whisper] I'm fading but never...

[whisper] I'm fading but never...
