Mass corruption environment destruction
Chaotic disruption in a land of dysfunction
People cheat and lie they steal and then cry
Before they pass away they come and ask why
The devils gonna get your soul
The devil's gonna get your soul
Somebody tell me, tell me am I already dead
I'm seein' more and more maybe it's all in my head
Everywhere we go a dead body
This whole wide world is a cemetery
Everywhere we go a dead body
This whole wide world is a cemetery
Has it come to this the whole wide world a necropolis
Before we come to find out why many more will have to die
Lie my body here to rest place my arms across my chest
Forgive me for my mortal sins before my afterlife begins
Somebody tell me tell, me am I already dead
I'm seein' more and more maybe it's all in my head
Everywhere we go a dead body
This whole wide world is a cemetery
Everywhere we go a dead body
This whole wide world is a cemetery
