(Chorus) 2X

Everywhere I turn, there's beautiful ladies,
Everywhere I look, there's beautiful girls.
So all I see are beautiful ladies and beautiful girls.

(Verse 1)

So when you're walking down the beach,
You see a pretty girl tanning by the ocean side.
You're scared to talk to her but don't worry,
Because there's many a girl along the ocean side.

(Verse 2)

And when you're walkin' in the park,
You see a pretty girl licking an ice cream cone.
It's hot outside but don't worry cause,
There's many Dem wit ice cream cones.

(Chorus) 2X

(Bridge)

Don't stop to thing about the little fish that got away,
Just stop and thing about casting the next line in the ocean.

(Verse 3)

So when you're walking through the mall,
You see a pretty girl trying on a cute pink dress,
If she snubs you boy, don't you worry cause,
There's a-many a Dem in cute pink dress.

(Verse 4)

This world is bigger than you know it,
Humongous like the deep blue sea,
There's a girl-ah swimming all around you,
Just like the fishes in the deep blue sea.

(Chorus) 2x
