I can't believe that I've failed again,
I've damaged our friendship so many times,
But I will try to change if you still have
Some faith in me.

Anyone who hurts an eye, brings tears out
Anyone who hurts a heart brings out some truth.
And anyone who hurts his friend,
Destroys the friendship

If I ever said harsh words to you,
Or raised my fist against you.
But we haven't lost everything.
I still have this chance to make things right.

If you'll (only) give me that chance.

I still got to know:
No friend will stay at my side, if I call him a fraud,
Treat him like dirt, or stab him in the back.
No friend will stay at my side.
