Ossuary for the misinformed
Youd end up being amazed
At what youd see inside
The wisps of knowledge denied
And to think that someones implied
Its a better place to reside

Take that voice of unreason
Asked that question
About the chaos
That lies dormant within

Have pondered through a pond
Of useless information
Fooled, tricked
But Im slowly coming around

Fell for it once, never again
Ignorance is bliss
For the miner of fools gold
Cant teach a dog, thats too old
The motherfuckerll take a bite of the poison
Indoctrinate unfiltered lore
Teaching
Learning
Absolutely nothing

Intravenously force fed
A slave state of intelligence
Meant to break these bonds at some point
Howsabout now

The bottom line
Ive saved you the time
Wasted on a lost cause
No longer
