Forever, will I plague you forever?
Why do some people want to rule their lives?
They think that they gotta breathe fire
Being scared but really nobody cares
Insecure waiting for heaven to tear their heart out
Nightmares get drawn out.
Gift wrapped with a story to tell.
You want a demon to blame your life on
Searching for a reason that your world is all in pieces.
Paint me up to be your villain,
Dress me like your enemy.
Search my eyes but you won't find your
Destiny by hating me.

Time is like water that can drown your mind.
When you procrast you're easy to blow passed.
Be a fool walk right back into our past
You're the only one still crying tears of glass
So sorry learn to live for tomorrow,
Go swim in your sorrow
You want a demon to blame your life on Still searching for a reason that your world is all In pieces.
Learn to live.
Learn to forget.
Not to regret.

I ain't your villain.
You don't know me anymore.
