While you shook hands with a man on fire
You told me that I would be alright
So don't try so hard to say that you're sorry
I'm all prime to apologize, now
When you leave, you're crushin our dreams
Why do you go away for so long, oh
All your lies are wastin our time
We all know what's really goin on
So take on the numbers that you just can't lose
Wake up in the morning still confused
All that's left is to follow me, now
What more do you want me to say

[Chorus]

Layin it down
Brush your nose
You got your little diamond heart, now
And you're so stone
Come on down now
It's time to go
You got your little diamond heart
So why you so stoned

In our dreams, the sunset strip
Heartbreak smiles, shapin our lips, now
One dropped out and one kinda died
The other ones here just to waste the ride, now
Can't you see I'm off to sleep
The boys are there, they're steppin to the yard, oh
Don't you worry about those tears now
Were all laughin way to hard

[Chorus]

Say it's all cool, now that can't change
Some rollin skatin fools left back in the day
Now I don't know how I'm gonna say but I hate the way you praise your indie ears, now
Can't you see that I can't breathe
All you have left is in here
When you come on back
I'd like to see you then

So na-na, wont you, wont you

[Chorus]

Higher
You must be
Higher
You gonna see
Higher
That ima set you free

[Chorus x4]
