I don't know, if I've ever know
A blue jean fantasy, so unsown
These dusty blues, they seem so new
So what did they ever take from you
They've got me scare
Of what I'll say
So go away, oh on and on
Opening the eyes of the blind
Can it be, can it be wrong

[Chorus]

Oh-oh
Oh-oh
Wont you stay
I'll put away
My Mexican coffin

Send me away
Where all the walls are broke
And everything has rusted
I'm stuck in play
So send me away
Where your walls are broken
And your lips have aged
I'm stuck in places
These dusty blues, they seem to grow
The thing is that everyone knows
Feelings fade, as sure as they wait
So don't run too fast
It's on it's way, hey

[Chorus]

Mama, you're gone,
Now
