Yesterday the sun escaped
Beside me for no reason
Guess these rainy days
Must be the changing of the season, if you will

I've been lost and found again
In circles I ran
There is no reason to explain who I am
I'm just a man... trying to understand...

Where do we go when we die
Who paints the Rainbows in the sky, tell me why

She said be careful what you wish for boy
Don't say I didn't warn you
We plucked the pine and grabbed the vine
And head to california, yes we did

I've been lost and found again
In circles I ran
There is no reason to explain who I am
I'm just a man... trying to understand...

Where do we go when we die
Who paints the rainbows in the sky, tell me why
In heaven, in heaven
He showed me a sign so I could know you
In heaven, in heaven
Somewhere in my mind, Angels surround you

[Guitar Solo]

Been lost and found again
In circles I ran
There is no reason to explain who I am
I'm just a man... trying to understand

Where do we go when we die, tell me why
Who paints the rainbows in the sky, tell me why
Where do we go when we die, Tell me why
Who paints the rainbows in the sky, tell me why

Where do we go when we die, tell me why
Who paints the rainbows in the sky, tell me why
