

Oratorio "A Lonely Prayer"

Visit "A Lonely Prayer" on MotoLyrics.com

Sitting on the porch I am wondering what is there for me

What this life gives to me.

Singing of the birds I wish I could be so free-minded

Like those in the sky

Is it wastage for me to be a lonely prayer

What's there to gain

Human greed says to me get a life now

No reason for a lonely prayer

Now I really see maybe true ignorance is bliss

To know nothing

"Hey you there" - don't wanna know, can't you see this

Burden in my back.

Leave me alone!

Is it wastage for me to be a lonely prayer

What's there to gain

Human greed says to me get a life now

No reason for a lonely prayer
