

Oratorio "Chain Of Pain"

Visit "Chain Of Pain" on MotoLyrics.com

Can you feel my pain now.
Thousands words can't describe it.
Wish I've never met you at all

Gave you all that I had
My love up to the sky
Oh why please tell my why

I need to find the key to this chain of pain
Lost in the field of grief

Gonna tell you what I want
'ain't nothing like before
Everything I did was a waste for you

Lost my sanity
This anger I can't handle
Got nothing to say to you no more

I need to find the key to this chain of pain
Lost in the field of grief

"Listen my child
Loose the hate and let me heal you
Say your prayer now, I'll lead the way"

Now I forgive you
I hope you will too
Just let the will of God be done
Now I found the key
It's my God the Father
He wiped the pain away
Feel free to fly!

Thank you!
