"No Return From Hell"

My heart feels like a black graveyard
All the keys are lost. Cloud of sin blackens my mind
I treasure my memories. Where lays my future?

I'm wasting my thoughts.
Wish to better myself but it ends with sorrow
One Saviour, one name for hope
And yet I take it for granted

Crawling, shouting in pain
Think I'm going insane
In silence I wish for end but there is no return from hell!
No return from hell!

So tired so frustrated.

Crawling, shouting in pain
Think I'm going insane
In silence I wish for end but there is no return from hell!
No return from hell!
