

Oratorio "Touch Of Your Love"

Visit "Touch Of Your Love" on MotoLyrics.com

Far away from home memories from the distant call
Just all these broken dreams that are left of me..

After all
This time I can still remember..

Touch of Your love
Changes my heart and soul
With tears in my eyes
I kneel before Your throne of grace

In Your eyes I see Your burning love to me
Lord I know there is no place too deep to You

Touch of Your love
Changes my heart and soul
With tears in my eyes
I kneel before Your throne of grace
