Friends, I've had a few
Lovers too, they come and go
I've wasted time chasin' dreams
Acquiring things, too young to know

That if you have heart
You'll find gold
If you have strength
You'll have control

If you have faith
You'll stand tall
But if you have love
You have it all

I've had a taste of sweet success
It's good at best if you're all alone
I came so close to a dream come true
When I held you, I should have known

That if you have heart
You'll find gold
If you have strength
You'll have control

If you have faith
You'll stand tall
But if you have love
You have it all

If you have heart
You'll find gold
If you have strength
You'll have control

If you have faith
You'll stand tall
But if you have love
You have it all

Oh, if you have love
You have it all
