Come, come Defend my name
Take my hand and make me safe
Say, can I walk you home
Its getting late
And you cant be sure

But I know
Theres a lot more to explore
And I hope
Theres a long way to go cause I want to experience the world
with this girl
and we can spend all day hanging around and I want you to know
we can spend all day just hanging around

Numb, numb
Can hardly feel
The gravel beneath my steering wheel
You say can I call this home?
Its our place
You can be sure

And I know
Theres a lot more to explore
And I hope
cause I want to experience the world
and we can spend all day hanging around
and I want you to know

We can spend all day just hanging around
