What I want for Christmas, doesn't come from any store.

Can't put it in a box tied up with ribbons, that's for sure.

Doesn't come in any sizes, or the colors of the day.

'Cause all I ask for Christmas, is to have you here with me.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

What I want for Christmas, is not expensive but it's rare.
It doesn't come from deep inside the Earth, or way out in the stratosphere.

If you asked me for a clue, I wouldn't know just where to start,

'Cause all I want from Christmas is something from your heart.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

When I go to sleep that night,

I'll dream of reindeer and the sleigh.

When I wake up in the morning,

Presents will be waiting for me.

What I want for Christmas is a simple thing I know,

Doesn't come from Jolly fat men saying ho, ho, ho.

Doesn't come inside greeting cards or the jewelery store, it's true..

'Cause the thing I want for Christmas, can only come from you.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.

La la la, la la la, on this Christmas holiday.
