Shame for the indisposed,
Who fail to walk though this open door.
You're faithless; the realist falls,
Trapped within you're confining walls.

A faded fortune,
Who cries in darkness?

Another day, another lie,
To hide behind those eyes,
The way it works; you've sanctified.
It suffocates inside.

Dictation of those who show,
A forceful thinker's shadow grows.
You claim to know the way,
Regression denies your future say.

A faded fortune,
Who cries in darkness?

Another day, another lie,
To hide behind those eyes,
The way it works; you've sanctified.
It suffocates inside.

To lose myself,
To face the fears,
Of all the times I've seen you're tears

Another day, another lie,
To hide behind those eyes,
The way it works; you've sanctified.
It suffocates inside.
