Within the rise of unconstraint,
Unveils the force of love and hate
Inside the reign of eyes and teeth,
Resides the rule of war and peace
Beneath the rising of refrain,
Proceeds the ceasing of abstain
Enclosed in truth adverse to lies,
Inflames the tainted soul of life
Within the force of spurning needs,
Resides cognition so complete
Reduce the lies that scourge the earth,
And cause the rising of rebirth

By way of light that breaches dark,
Ascends the morning of the stars
Within the wretched soul of man,
Subjects purgation of demand
By way of discontent I see,
Beyond confinement and decease
By means of falsified untruth,
I plunge a spear inside of truth
I hold a sword within my hand,
Engraved of Phosphorous extant
Reduce the lies that scourge the earth,
And cause the rising of rebirth
