Dreams made of fire;
Black is the flame which awakens desire
Tongues touched by fire;
Defeat the truth and spurn the liar
Pain feeds desire; and soothes the skin inflamed by fire
Blood lights the pyres;
I dream of her that breeds desire

Lust loves the fire;
Let no gods see our souls' desires
Blood loves desire;
In lust we burn and praise the fire
Gods made of fire; live in her who serves desire
Life made of fire; we drink the wine of gods desires

Hate loves the liar;
Dreams are made of blood and fire
Blood, sperm and fire;
If gods could speak they'd speak of fire

Dreams made of fire;
Black is the flame which awakens desire
Blood serves desire; and licks the skin untouched by fire
Hate roused by fire;
Our needs combined consume desire
Lust lights the fire;
Let no god see my soul's desires

Stars born of fire;
Immerse my soul with god's desire
Blood touched by fire;
In tongues you speak and praise desire
Life raised in fire;
Lust ascends from blood and fire
Love lights the pyres;
Black is the heart which submits to desire
