Hear not my words I speak not the truth
I speak not of wisdom I speak not to you
I pick not my flower from the lineage of men
I reap her in secrecy from the pure and insane

Hail my brother of light
Hail my sister of life

See not my signs they are not to be seen
They reflect just the madness of my secrets concealed
See not my face it appeals not to thee
I am Cain I am Cesar I am Judas to be

Hail my brother of light
Hail my sister of life

See not my soul it is feared and despised
Be seduced by my words and deceived by the light
I am raped by my sister she's my brother disguised
Let hell be my refuge I am Jesus defiled

Hail my brother of light
