From deep within I come, to deep within I go
To search the deepest forest, the forest ov my soul
The candles that I lit, I lit for Love and Light
I am my true succesor, I hold the key to life
A well within forever, so grave and so abstruse
Inside it rests my darkness, the darkness ov my truth

From deep within I come, to deep within I go
To search the deepest forest, the forest ov my soul
A token in the twilight, the deepest woods I seek
A raven candle guides me, to harvest what I reek
A scarlet veil so tender, the cradle ov my deep
Inside it rests Completion, so perfect yet asleep
