Within the rise of unconstraint
Unveils the force of love and hate
Inside the reign of eyes and teeth
Resides the rule of war and peace
Beneath the rising of refrain
Proceeds the ceasing of abstain
Enclosed in truth adverse to lies
Inflames the tainted soul of life

Within the force of spurning needs
Resides cognition so complete
Reduce the lies that scourge the earth
And cause the rising of rebirth
By way of light that breaches dark
Ascends the morning of the stars
Within the wretched soul of man
Subjects purgation of demand

By way of discontent I see
Beyond confinement and decease
By means of falsified untruth
I plunge a spear inside of truth
I hold a sword within my hand
Engraved of Phosphorous extant
Reduce the lies that scourge the earth
And cause the rising of rebirth
