Sixteen, you and me,
Never needed anything
Summer breeze running free,
Felt like we had everything
Suitcase full of dreams,
You said you'd run away with me
But instead you let me leave your world
I can't and I can't forget how it felt
Being loved and believing
This feeling would never end...

So I just hold on to the memory
'Cause if I can't have you
Then I gotta hold on to something
I moved on to the bigger things
Whatever we go through,
Still we gotta hold on to something,
Still we gotta hold on to something,
Still we gotta hold on to something...

A shoe box, broken dreams,
We're sitting but I pondered be
'Cause I miss home, I'm here alone,
Wishing you were here with me
And I can't breathe, these city streets
Feel like they're closing in on me
Can't believe you let me leave your world
I can't and I can't forget
How it felt being loved and believing
This feeling would never end...

So I just hold on to the memories
'Cause if I can't have you
Then I gotta hold on to something
I moved on to the bigger things
Whatever we go through,
Still we gotta hold on to something

Well, the part of our past
That we'll always have
We love, we laugh like we never have
Now we can we never go back...

So I just hold on to the memories
'Cause if I can't have you
Then I gotta hold on to something
I moved on to the bigger things
Whatever we go through,
Still we gotta hold on to something

Hold on to the memories
'Cause if I can't have you
Then I gotta hold on to something
I moved on to the bigger things
Whatever we go through,
Still we gotta hold on to something,
Still we gotta hold on to something,
We gotta hold on to something...
