(Levi Oliver, Leif Madsen)

[Verse 1]

Sometimes, like never before I feel so, empty inside and as the sun shines, on her bedroom floor
you sleep beside, me...

[Break/Solo]

[Verse 2]

Well maybe, I've hurt you before but in some ways, I've died and in your absense, I've learned my mistakes not a day gone by, I havn't cried

[Chorus]

cuz everyday I see your face
I push away, my fear and hate
you made me feel so free, in a world so cold
and now your gone, took a seperate road

[Verse 3]

patience, has worn me thin
i can't believe, you lied to me sometimes I wish, I never met you you took me for, a ride

[Chorus]

cuz everyday I see your face
I push away, my fear and hate
you made me feel so free, in a world so cold
and now your gone, took a seperate road

[Break/Solo]

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

cuz everyday I see your face
I push away, my fear and hate
you made me feel so free, in a world so cold
and now your gone, took a seperate road
