"Death Smiles At Us All"

Visit "Death Smiles At Us All" on MotoLyrics.com

In nightmares I have seen
The hand that holds the key
To open every dream
Where real becomes unreal
In nightmares I have seen
The blade that slits my throat
The waters where I'll drown
The fire where I'll burn

We know the power that she holds
The dreams and nightmares she unfolds
Her touch could sometimes be so cold
When death smiles at us all

In dreams within a dream
I fall from the highest place
A bullet in my head
Sometimes hanging myself
In dreams within a dream
Death is loving me
So beautiful yet so old
She gives me her kiss so cold

Delirious hunter
Takes your life away
Sometimes so peaceful
Sometimes in pain
Good or evil
She doesn't care
She points at you
You know it's the end
