"Eyes Of The Dragon"

Like a curse
From the skies
They came to end our lives
Breathing fire
With flaming wrath
Burning everything in their path

Human race, burned to dust
Fire roars, all hope is lost
Terror strikes
With every flight
As all the world ignites
We stand in daze
As our world decays
Embraced by the flames
Human race, burned to dust
Fire roars, all hope is lost

Holocaust, burning lust
In the eyes of the dragon
Blaze desire, infernal fire
In the eyes of the dragon

From eons past
We have tried to outlast
But they've scorched the earth clean of life
Evil spawned
From the fading sun
To grant us this desolate world
Human race, burned to dust

Fire roars, all hope is lost
