*intro*

I need your body touch
I need your body touch
I need your body touch
Its why I miss you lately

Did you ever know you made the first mistake
When you walked through my door and I saw your face
Been around for years I never new your name
Do you want my love or is this just a game

Now I blame my pride you'll never get away
Its been all so long yet it feels like yesterday
Got my pride, got my friends
But I still dont have you babe
Want to love you baby before its too late

Your ghetto love runs through my body baby
Your ghetto love is what i need tonight
Your ghetto love is why i miss you lately
Your ghetto love is what i need tonight

Did you ever know you made the first mistake
When you walked through my door and I saw your face
Been around for years and I never new your name
Do you want my love or is this just a game

Your ghetto love runs through my body baby
Your ghetto love is what I need tonight
Your ghetto love is why I miss you lately
Your ghetto love is what I need tonight

Your ghetto love runs through my body baby
Your ghetto love is what I need tonight
