I called out in the dead of night to my aims It's not that girl that I love, it's you Occasionally, those strange nights aren't nice Nothing to say, WOW, I walked

I don't understand, always us
The only opposed detour

It's every bad guy, but, one time, lies weren't around to humiliate
Each only together, but these naked hearts are wounded

Chasing down only the dream that shouldn't be We're idiots, if we don't become like that However, someday, it's surely our destine to meet again
Burning the soul, WOW, I'll beat it in battle

I can't be confused, always us Rolling, improving honestly

Understanding things is bad, but thoroughly continuing to believe, shutting up Unable to send about such things, but the serif talking about friendship is awkward

It's every bad guy, but one time lies weren't around to
humiliate
Each only together, but these naked hearts are

to believe, shutting up
The serif talking about friendship is awkward
