Have seen the beauty calling,
I have dreamed of life beyond
The walls never crossed
By the mortals from the crowd

Have gleamed like a star ever-falling,
And believed in virgin thorn
Take my soul
Let me see the drowning world

Have heard the lovers singing
It was the wind who brought their songs
The relief of your ghost
It just flounders in my whirl

Have gleamed like a star ever-falling,
And believed in virgin thorn
Take my soul
It comes the night of all the worst

[Chorus:]
It's the night, o it's the night
Come to me and see my soul is dying
Once, o it's just once,
That my life will have a weight and meaning

The devil gets my soul attached
I could have peace with my own mind,
Lived in pleasures and delight,
Served the sin, the refuge despised
