Come, hear me, my cry
Come, hear my desires
In deed of delight

He always rised
(When) dark comes the night
(And nothing stops
My love
Is still so hopeless
Like a beast that feels so lonely
For the scattered rose from my blessed own
So pay now steady with your love)

Where is my love
Where is my heart
(When) fear left inside

Tears in your eyes
Slay nails in my heart
(And I'm so hopeless

Empty was my gainly kingdom
Before the sacring fairy in come
Her truly love so might and tender
All I want is a kiss to be awaken)

Comes the dark, comes the night
In the sight of the virgin bride
Wake my lord, from the sleep,
From the sleep, in that angels fall

Far away, far away
From the flaming world of an endless love
Far away, far away
From the malice with my blood adorned
