Beyond the doors of the living
Where imagination fades
The eyes of ancient ages
Are gazing over a crimson shade

The future unfolds with the rising sun
Unspoken words where nothing yet's been done
Where the book of life paints the sky

Dawn dancer share your mind
Tell me the story of tomorrow
Dawn dancer let me know
The one way I must follow
Dawn dancer turn the page
Where do I go and what is my fate?
Dawn dancer tell me all
Now, before it is too late

A warning from the unknown
A prophecy for the wise
The coming lies before you,
But can you see your own demise?

A distant sight visualize our doom
Destiny calls and the future looms
Where the book of life paint the sky

I'm ready for the end
Let us find it together
I'm ready for knowledge
I've been waiting forever
