Time to release
Hold my breath, again
I want you here
Hope now it will end

Sometimes it's summer
Yet it snows deep within

Hold you like a flower
Now the tears stop flowin'

You are sunset
An addiction I won't regret
I'm falling, I'm falling
Over and over

Hold back the tears
Draw up all the years
Wait forever
Forever wait s for itself

Will you be kinder to me than his moon
Just hope you'll see why I need you soon
