Shut your mouth and
It's in my heart. It's in my veins.
My wish is your command. You will obey all that I say.
Or suffer by my hand.
Serving me is all you're living for.
So do not think, do not try.
Do as I say, not as I do.
Our way of life.
Take my command. The rules that I dictate.
Follow and submit. The translations of my hate.
You're in control ignoring what I feel.
Can't speak up my mind.
You've checked my lips were sealed.
You raise your voice and I fulfill your needs.
Too scared for pain. I leave my heart to bleed.
It's in my heart. It's in my brain.
My wish is your command.
Do as I say, not as I do.
Our way of life.
Take my command. The rules that I dictate.
Follow and submit. My lust of power is gonna drag you down.
I've reached my point of no return.
It's where I want what I have earned. Liberation.
A journey, destiny unknown where I'll be queen
And reign with love care and vigour.
Can I be strong enough to change my Life and run you win yes you win
Shut your mouth and
Take my command. The rules that I dictate.
Follow and submit. My lust of power is gonna drag you down. ãµ
